Over Eighty Locations Made in Waggoner Pasture in Wilbarger; Noble Showing Up for Good Well

Test at Rock Crossing Makes 150 Barrels of Oil in Eighteen Hours Flowing by Heads Through 1-2 Inch Casing

Wildcatting in Waggoner's pasture in eastern Wilbarger continued to occupy most of the attention in oil over the week-end. A number of new locations have been made, bringing the total of those on the ranch to over 80, 25 of which have been made since the finding of an oil sand by the Gulf No. 1 Waggoner three weeks ago.

The Nobel No. 1 Waggoner, section 42, block 4, H. & T. C., made 150 barrels of oil in 18 hours and no water in a test flowing by heads through 3 1-2 inch casing. How much it will make if it can be finally cleaned out and completed is not known, nor is it known how much caving there is in the hole.

Among the locations made over the week-end are:

M. L. Lippard, section 53, block 2, and west half of section 2, block 7, Waggoner lands. A. S. Everett, north half of section 20, block 2, and northeast quarter of section 44, and southeast quarter of section 45, block 2, Waggoner lands. Shamrock Oil Company, southwest quarter of section 43 and southeast quarter of section 44, block 4, Waggoner lands. McLeister Oil Company, east half of section 20, block 14, Waggoner lands.

Bass has rigged up in the Waggoner pasture in the southeast quarter of section 32, block 4; Fain and Murchison are building a derrick on the south half of section 24, block 4; Magnolia is ready to spud in on the south half of section 59, block 4; Sheerin-McCamey-Lacey have timber on the ground for a derrick in section 60, block 4; Petroleum Exploration is ready to spud in on section 25, block 2; Monte-Stanhilf have timber on the ground for two tests in sections 3 and 4, block 17; Knight and Hines have timber on the ground for two tests, one on section 2 and one on section 8, block 1; Levy No. 2 Waggoner, an offset to No. 1, in section 65, block 14, is ready to begin drilling; and the Roots derrick is up on section 52, block 14, McCrary land.

In the South Vernon field Mc-Camey-Sheerin-Lacey are drilling in No. 5 Stephens at about 1300 feet and a completion is expected soon. They have rigged up on their No. 10 Stephens, situated in on No. 6 Richardson and No. 6 Stephens, and drilling on five other wells on the two leases.

HIGH SCHOOL WORK TO BE DISPLAYED

PERKINS-TIMBERLAKE WINDS TO SHOW ARTICLES FROM MANUAL TRAINING

An interesting display in the windows of Perkins-Timberlake Company tomorrow and Thursday will be sponsored by E. W. Shepherd, head of the manual training and mechanical drawing departments at the local high school, who will show work done by students in the two departments during this year.

The work in these two departments at the high school this year has been especially fine, and through the courtesy of Perkins-Timberlake Company the public will be given an opportunity to see what is being done there. A number of the articles made by students in the manual training department vie with the work of expert cabinet makers, and present a thoroughly finished appearance.

MERCHANT-FARMER LUNCH AT ELLIOTT

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE TO INAUGURATE GET-TOGETHER MEETINGS ON MARCH 27

The business men of Vernon under the auspices of the Chamber of Commerce will hold the first of a series of business men-farmers luncheons at Elliott, March 27, according to a statement made by R. M. Fielder, secretary of the local Chamber of Commerce. The luncheons will be held, Mr. Fielder said, instead of the former trade and good will trips put on by the organization.

Plans are being made whereby the women's clubs in the county under the direction of Miss Emma Ganter, home demonstration agent for Wilbarger, will serve the luncheons at the different communities and the proceeds will go to their organizations. The charges will be 75 cents per plate for a regular old-fashioned dinner, and the business men will pay for two plates each, each having as his guest a farmer of the community.

It is hoped that in this way the local merchants and the farmers in Wilbarger county will become better acquainted with each other and be better equipped to help each other in the problems confronting the county as a whole.

At the Elliott luncheon, it is expected there will be 50 or 60 men from Vernon to make the trip, and a like number of farmers of the Elliott community will be expected. The luncheon will be served by the Elliott home demonstration club.

Mother and Babe Meet Death in Flames in South Vernon Field; Two Other Children Near Death

Fire Early Sunday Morning in Frame Dwelling on Stephens Lease—Boy May Pay with Life for Heroism Attempted

Mrs. Jane Paschall, 38, wife of an oil worker in South Vernon field, and her six-month-old babe, Nelson, died Sunday in a local hospital from burns received at one o'clock Sunday morning in a frame dwelling on the Stephens lease when an oil stove which the woman was generating flared up causing a nearby can of gasoline to explode. Mildred, 14, and Chalmers, 12, her daughter and son, are in a hospital here so badly burned that no hope is held for their recovery.

Lucile, 16, another daughter, escaped with minor burns on her hands, and saved the life of her three-year-old brother, Melvin, when she threw him through an open window. J. N. Paschall, the husband and father, was away, pumping on the Ray-Massie lease.

Mrs. Paschall and her three injured children were rushed to a hospital here, where she succumbed in 19 hours. The baby died after three hours. Funeral services for Mrs. Paschall and baby Nelson were held from the Underwood Funeral Home at two o'clock yesterday afternoon, and interment followed in East View cemetery, before a small group of relatives, a climax to the first fatality in the South Vernon field. Rev. E. T. Johnson, local Methodist missionary, officiated at the ceremonies.

The blaze occurred when Mrs. Paschall dropped a small alcohol burner with which she was generating an oil stove and accidentally turned over a can of gasoline. She was immediately enveloped in flames, as was her daughter, Mildred, who was standing at her side. Lucile pushed them from the room and flung her baby brother through an open window, in the excitement forgetting the infant sleeping on a bed in the room.

Young Chalmers, who was sleeping in a tent in the yard, received his injuries which may prove fatal when he rushed in the house to rescue the sleeping baby.

When he reached the bed, he found himself completely cut off from egress, and, it is said, was discovered there by two men who went in after him calmly sitting next to his little brother with the flames licking his face. He was carried out by one of the men, and the baby bundled in a mattress and taken out by the other.

Lucile received burns on her hands in attempting to tear the flaming clothes from her mother and sister.

An automobile was procured, and the injured members of the family brought here to a hospital.

Ray Paschall, of Holliday, Texas, and Mrs. C. L. Anderson, of Tynon, Okla., son and daughter of Mrs. Paschall, were called and were here for the funeral. Mrs. W. H. Francis, of Pawhuska, Okla., another daughter, could not be located.

COTTONSEED MEAL FOR WORK STOCK

AGRICULTURAL SCIENTIST
SUGGESTS SUBSTITUTION IN PART OF GRAIN RATION

According to Dr. Tait Butler, agricultural scientist and editor of the Progressive Farmer, in a radio address to Southern farmers broadcast from the Memphis Commercial Appeal station recently, feeding the farm work stock for making the cotton crop is a problem which is always worthy of careful consideration, but this year is doubly important because of the high price and scarcity of feed. Hay and corn are extremely scarce and high-priced, he said, owing to the unfavorable season last year.

Dr. Butler declared that since the usual feeds for farm work stock in the South are corn and hay, the problem in feeding to make the 1925 crop is to save corn and hay, and to find Southern substitutes for them that will support the mules and enable them to do their work at less cost.

If the mules are eating grass hay, corn stover, or any other roughage low in protein, Dr. Butler said, and corn is the grain feed, a mule weighing eleven or twelve hundred pounds will require 12 to 14 pounds of corn per day, of which four pounds may be substituted by two pounds of cottonseed meal, at a saving of at least five cents per day per mule. In feeding five million mules five months, he said, this would amount to $37,500,000, and would be better food.

In some sections, Dr. Butler declared, where there are other Southern feeds cheaper than corn at present prices, four pounds of corn, three pounds of rice polish, three pounds of high-grade rice bran, and two pounds of cottonseed meal, may be substituted for the 14 pounds of corn per day. The ration will be as good, he said, if the mules eat it readily, and the saving will be not less than 10 cents per day per mule.

Dr. Butler declared that when hay is plentiful most hard-working horses and mules are fed too much, and that when hay is scarce and high-priced not over three-fourths of a pound of hay should be fed daily for every 100 pounds of the animal's weight, and never over one pound. Idle work stock can feed on hay cheaper than on grain, he said, but for hard-working horses or mules grain is cheaper especially in warm weather.

It was also suggested by Dr. Butler that if alfalfa or other high-priced legume hays must be bought, one-third of the hay, or three or four pounds of hay, may be taken out of the ration and cottonseed hulls or other low-grade and cheap or roughage substituted.

Dr. Butler insisted that the South could not afford to produce a cotton crop on high-priced purchased feeds, and as a remedy said an ample feed soundly this year should also be produced. It takes at least 65 to 75 bushels of corn and two tons of hay to properly feed a mule a year, he said, and at the average yields per acre it will take five to seven acres to produce it.

Dr. Butler said that if the farmers produce 14,000,000 to 16,000,000 bales of cotton in 1925, as they would have done in 1924 if the stands had been good, they will get 12 to 15 cents per pound for it, or less, and in the aggregate receive much less for the crop than they would if they produced 12,000,000 or 13,000,000 bales. In 1923 10,000,000 bales were produced, and in 1924 13,500,000, and nearly $100,000,000 less was received for the larger than for the smaller crop.

"K-The Unknown" Coming for Two Days Tomorrow

Tomorrow and Thursday, "K-The Unknown," is on at the Pictorium. "K-The Unknown" is the screen version of the widely read novel, "K," written by Mary Roberts Rinehart. Universal made the picture as one of its big productions for the current year, and the acclaim with which it has been received indicates that the producers made a wise selection.

Two big tragic scenes take place in a cafe and in the operating room of a hospital. The latter was modeled after the operating room in one of the best equipped hospitals in California. Other elements are true to atmosphere likewise.

Miss Valli is supported by a cast particularly adapted for the interpretation of the story. Besides Marmont, there are Margarita Fischer, John Roche, Maurice Ryan, Francis Feeney.

Virginia Valli, cast in the part of Sidney Page, beautiful young woman, whose life has been passed in a small town where she has become a social favorite of the younger residents.

The part of "K," silent and mysterious stranger whose coming to the little town presages so much of vital import to the others in the story, is finely handled by Percy Marmont. Margarita Fischer as Carlotta Harrison, misguided, but devotedly in love with Dr. Max Wilson, portrayed by John Roche and Maurice Ryan, Francis Feeney.

Friday, "The Cyclone Rider," a big picture full of thrills is on at the same theater. Though a stupendous melodrama, yet the ingeniousness of the plot is logical. The cyclone rider is a young man's heroic attempt to show his prospective father-in-law, five thousand dollars in ten days the fruits of his efforts. An automobile race with the desired amount of money as first prize is on tap. The villain is there as usual, but Jimmy is just about to win the race when a baby toddles across the track in front of the racing machine. Then comes the big thrill and just a little later wedding bells.

Today is the last showing of Rin-Tin-Tin, the wonder dog, that acts with almost human intelligence.

Then Good Old Days.

In days of old
When knights were bold,
and sheet-iron trousers wore,
They lived in peace;

For then a crease
Would last ten years or more,
In those old days
They had the craze

For cast-iron shirts—and wore 'em!

And there was bliss
Enough in this—

The laundry never tore 'em.

- COTTON -

Wilbarger County Supreme in West Texas

S. A. Smith, the man in the foreground of the photograph, picked 687 pounds of cotton in one day. He is an average 300 pound picker in ordinary cotton.

The Littleton Crop Record

F. H. Littleton, of Wilbarger county, who came within 52 pounds of lint of winning the $1,000 prize offered by The Dallas News and The Semi-Weekly Farm News in the "More Cotton on Fewer Acres" contest, really produced his cotton at smaller cost than did John W. McFarlane, of Anderson county, the winner, according to the papers sponsoring the contest. Mr. Littleton made a total of 5,030 pound of lint cotton on five measured acres without fertilizer of any kind on the farm of J. D. Summerour & Son near Vernon in the extremely rich soil of the Pease River Valley. This year's crop was his fourth successive on this land.

Mr. Littleton, according to his crop record, listed his land in December, February and May.

He planted May 16 at the rate of 14 pounds of Summerour's improved cotton seed an acre, making the rows three feet apart. The stand was harrowed May 26, and plowed June 7 and 22 and July 10. On July 19 the five acres were chopped to a stand with one or two stalks to a hill; the hills were 18 inches apart in the row.

Mr. Littleton cultivated only six times during the whole summer, while Mr. McFarlane cultivated ten times. A section harrow and a cultivator were the types of implements he used. The first bale was picked October 16, compared with September 9 for the McFarlane crop.

No boll weevils and no leafworms made their appearance, but a few bollworms began to bother the crop in August. No poisons were used, however, to combat the insects.

Ten bales were obtained from his five acres by Mr. Littleton, weighing respectively 485, 530, 520, 495, 520, 495, 505, 570, 465 and 445 pounds. The total weight in seed cotton, as certified by B. E. Bryant, superintendent of the Peoples Gin here, was 12,100 pounds.

As to costs, Mr. Littleton paid 20c an hour for chopping and $1.50 a 100 pounds for picking. His seed cost $5.40 for the 70 pounds used. Mr. McFarlane used one bushel of seed an acre, where Mr. Littleton used only 14 pounds. Hired labor costs were greater in Wilbarger than they were in Anderson county.

On the remainder of his farm Mr. Littleton produced 74 bales of approximately 500 pounds each on 95 acres. This in itself is a very high yield for so large a tract and approaches a record. Nearly all of the land was heavy sandy loam varying to light sandy, with only 15 acres of bottom land. On the 95 acres, fall sown rye was plowed under, but no fertilizer was used. There were the same number of cuttings, six, for the season as for the contest cotton. Rows were also three feet apart and stalks one and two to the hill with hills 18 inches apart.

Mr. Littleton came to this county four seasons ago from Lewisville, Denton county. The first year after he settled here he raised 68 bales of cotton on 65 acres of land. He originally came from Ellis county, where he was reared.

Believing in the wonderful future of our city and county we are publishing this series of advertisements with the hope that our citizens will more fully realize our advantages and in turn tell them to the world

COUNTY TAX EXEMPTION.

Another county has been added to the tax exempt list of Texas counties relieved of the necessity of paying state taxes. A bill was passed through the Legislature the other day exempting Cameron County because of certain extraordinary expenditures made by that subdivision in the development of the lower Rio Grande Valley country. We already have an appreciable number of counties in Texas that have been exempted from the payment of state taxes for various reasons. The most common reason is to extend tax exemption as a sort of aid in overcoming some disaster, like the Galveston and Corpus Christi storms.

The Record is not full versed in the nature of the claim made by Cameron County for tax exemption, but we already know that it is one thing to get a county on the free list and quite another on the tax list. It is manifestly the duty of the state to co-operate in every possible way with counties which have been visited with some catastrophe or which have been making extraordinary expenditures for development purposes, but in the latter classification there is room for much doubt as to the wisdom of tax exemption.

No doubt the people of Cameron county undertook their development program because they believed it good business to do so, and if we are to believe the statements of their real estate agents the venture has paid handsomely. If this be true, why should Cameron County be exempted from taxation? This principle might be extended to include the building of good roads and a score of other public improvements and if it should be adopted as a state policy we should soon find ourselves without tax resources to support the State government.

Except in cases of disaster overtaking a community, as with Galveston and Corpus Christi, The Record does not believe the Legislature is warranted in exempting a county from state taxes. Or is this boon for Cameron County an admission that the Rio Grande valley lands are not so profitable as investments as they have been advertised as being?

VERNON'S WATER NEEDS.

According to Mayor Mason Vernon's continued growth is about to result in an embarrassing situation with regard to the water supply. It isn't often that an individual is embarrassed by his success or by the growth of his business. But this is not true with cities. The embarrassments of a community arise more frequently from growth than from any other cause. Our inability to meet the school needs is attributable to growth, and the same is true of other services rendered by city and community governments.

There has been an astonishing increase in water consumption according to Mr. Mason. This may be attributed almost exclusively to an increase in the number of patrons of the city water system. The additional supply made available last year, it seems, will not be sufficient to carry the present population through the summer. Additional wells are being sunk in anticipation of the summer's water needs, but even this step does not promise to fully meet the situation, if the summer consumption increases in proportion to the increase in winter consumption.

The Mayor is of the opinion that Vernon must soon look for an even greater water supply than is available from present sources with the maximum of possible development. This news is both gratifying and disturbing. It is immensely gratifying because it evidences a growth in population that will make Vernon an even more substantial city than it has been in the past, although the past reveals a record of no mean growth. It is disturbing, because nothing is so disastrous to the growth and development of a city as water shortage. Our water is of fine quality, but water must be provided in unlimited quantities if Vernon is to continue to grow by attracting new investors.

Not only that, but the protection of present properties demands an adequate water supply. A dry summer may tax the present source of supply beyond its ability to meet, but at best, the Mayor is of the opinion that Vernon must soon face the necessity of expanding her water supply system.

Potash Salt Areas in West Texas Are Extended 30 Miles

The area in which potash salts are known to occur in West Texas has been extended some 30 miles north and 50 miles east of the area of previous discoveries. This discovery has been recently made by the United States Geological Survey, Department of the Interior, from new wells bored for oil at two additional localities in Western Texas. Dr. J. A. Udden, director of the Bureau of Economic Geology of the University of Texas, who is co-operating with the United States Geological Survey in this work of exploration said:

"This new extension covers quite a bit of territory. It starts close to the New Mexico-Texas line, about 20 miles west of the southwest corner of New Mexico, the boundary of the area in which potash is notable richness has been found in the red beds, and runs southward for a distance of 30 miles, to a point near Barstow. Here the deposit turns northeast for a distance of 130 miles to the McDowell well in Glascock County. Again the course turns this time in a northwest direction and extends for about 50 miles to the Burns well in Dawson County, from which it returns in a west by southwest direction to the starting point.

"Indications have also been found in the Panhandle of deposits of potash, but it is impossible to say just what the richness of these deposits is under the conditions by which they were obtained. Only the churn drill was used in securing these samples, and this may make many errors in collecting samples. But the best samples obtainable are to the effect that the salts are rich in potash, but to what extent these beds are, we are not able to say. However, greater interest is being taken now than heretofore in these potash deposits by oil drillers."

NEW FISHING LAW AFFECTS LAKE KEMP

NO FISHING OF ANY KIND ALLOWED DURING MONTHS OF MARCH AND APRIL.

Announcement made by B. Daniels, vice president of the North Texas Game and Fish Association, that word has been received by him that the Governor signed the special bill forbidding fishing in Lake Kemp and that it has already gone into effect.

According to Mr. Daniels, all fishing is forbidden by the law during the months of March and April. Action of the kind was requested by the North Texas Game and Fish Association prohibiting fishing in Lake Kemp, he said, in order to give the fish stocked there by the government a chance to multiply before they were taken out in great numbers. The season will again be open on May 1.

MRS. PIGG ENTERTAINS METHODIST WOMEN FRIDAY

Mrs. E. H. Pigg was hostess Friday afternoon to members of the Mrs. Huggins' class of the Methodist Sunday school. At the business session it was decided that members clothe an orphan at the Methodist Waco orphanage.

The hostess served an ice course and the Saint Patrick day motif was carried out in the brick ice cream, decorated with the shamrock. The house decorations were also in green in keeping with the approaching birthday of the patron saint of Ireland.

The following were present: Mesdames W. H. Huggins, G. W. Backus, J. L. Showers, W. Andrews, H. E. Rogers, Williams, A. J. Carpenter, H. S. Starr, F. L. Luttrell, Will Martin, R. L. So Was This Vernon Woman Who Tells Her Experience.

All too often women accept their pains and aches as natural to their sex. They fail to realize that weak kidneys are often to blame for that backache, those headaches, dizzy spells and that tired, depressed feeling. Thousands have found new health and strength by helping the weakened kidneys with Doan's Pills—a stimulant diuretic. This Vernon case is one of many:

Mrs. J. A. Wilkinson, Dean and Fannie Streets, P. O. Box No. 509, says: "I suffered with a dull throbbing ache in my back and it became weak and sore. I was greatly annoyed with headaches, too, and spells of dizziness came, when the specks blurred my sight. I felt weak and the least work tired me out. I became nervous and irritable too. Doan's Pills, from the Ferguson Drug Co., relieved me of the attack."

MANY CHILDREN ATTEND SCHOOL

TOTAL ENROLLMENT IN CITY
SCHOOLS HERE ANNOUNCED
BY SUPERINTENDENT

The total enrollment in the city schools here for the year through the sixth month which ended February 20 has been announced by W. T. Lofland, superintendent of city schools, as follows:

High school, 453; junior high school, 285; Shive school, 433; Central school, 387; Parker school, 296; first and second grades (junior high building), 37; colored school, 95; total, 1,956.

The actual attendance during the sixth month, according to Mr. Lofland, was as follows:

High school, 555; junior high school, 279; Shive school, 327; Central school, 297; Parker school, 297; first and second grades (junior high building), 33; colored school, 87; total, 1,629.

The difference in the figures for each school, Mr. Lofland declared, may be attributed to two facts, first, that some of the children have moved from the city, and second, that the month of February found Vernon with a wide-spread epidemic of influenza during which time many pupils had to be dropped from the rolls. Quite a number, he said, have since returned, however, and are now in school.

New Service Over Sante Fe Road to California March 16

The new passenger train service over the Santa Fe Railway line in northwest Texas, effective March 16th, will be very convenient for passengers for California points from this section. The addition of two through trains between Chicago and California with standard Pullman and tourist sleeper service over this line through the Panhandle has been made for the convenience of the people in this part of Texas.

Passengers for California will have the choice of two transcontinental trains. Number 1 leaves Amarillo at 7:10 p. m. and arrives in Los Angeles 11:30 the second morning. Number 21 leaves Amarillo at 5:30 a. m. and arrives in Los Angeles 6:15 p. m. the next day. Train number 1 will offer a daylight ride through the highlands of Arizona with its picturesque canyons, painted desert, and petrified forest. After passing through the famous Cajon Pass next morning this train runs through gardens and orange groves into Los Angeles.

Train number 21 leaving Amarillo 5:30 a. m., arrives Los Angeles at 6:15 the following evening, making the run in 36 hours 45 minutes, the fastest regular schedule ever arranged between Amarillo and Los Angeles. This train will also carry a standard sleeper for Los Angeles via the Grand Canyon, stopping over one day, enabling passengers to visit the world's wonder without change of sleepers.

Men and Women in News Spotlight

Ganna Walska, wife of Harold E. McCormick, multi-millionaire Chicago "harvester king," has been refused permission by the Mayor of Nice, France, to reappear there in opera, on the grounds that she is "not an artist." Lieutenant Osborne C. Wood, son of Governor General Leonard Wood, of the Philippines, is in retirement in France and is reported to have spent most of the fortune he was credited with making in Wall Street. Denying reports that he was engaged to Priscilla Dean, film actress, Lieutenant Leslie P. Arnold, world flier, revealed that he had been secretly married to Miss Mildred Avery, a nurse, of New York City, in August, 1917, adding that they separated on their wedding day and had seen each other only once since. Job E. Hedges, famous New York attorney and humorist, dropped dead in Atlantic City, N. J., where he and his wife were spending a few days.

School Enumeration in City Is Meeting With Much Success

The enumerators of the city school children are rounding out their work very successfully, according to W. T. Lofland, superintendent of city schools and director of the enumerators. It is expected that a preliminary check of the work done can be announced by the end of the week.
After the first check is made, Mr. Lofland stated, the enumerators will be called upon to look carefully for any children of school age they have missed and to secure their names so that a complete count may be had. The final count must be made before the end of the month.
The work is done in all schools of the state during the month of March in order to determine the allotment of money which will be given the schools for operation for the next scholastic year. This year the schools in Vernon, according to Mr. Lofland, have a great number more pupils than money allowed on last year's enumeration, and he especially urges that the people of the city cooperate with the enumerators so that this additional money may be secured next year.

Literary Guest Here Displays Humorous Ignorance of South

Among the recent visitors to Vernon was a woman well known in journalistic and literary circles, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Robinson, of Denver, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. S. McColloch at their home here Sunday on route to Brownville where they will remain for two months. Mrs. Robinson is a member of the Rocky Mountain News staff where she has won renown with her numerous poems. Mr. Robinson is an old hunting companion of Mr. McColloch.
Mr. McColloch tells a humorous story on Mrs. Robinson, who is quite ignorant of the South. On their way to Vernon, Mr. McColloch says, the couple was supplied with circulars announcing the building of a gin at Memphis, whereupon Mrs. Robinson admonished her husband to stop at the plan long enough to secure a bottle. She was told that she would find difficulty in digesting cotton.
